

Chinese Fine Art Association (CFAA) is an independent, nonprofit, educational organization open to the public. The primary focus of the organization is to promote and raise the awareness of various Oriental arts, particularly traditional Chinese brush painting and Chinese calligraphy.

Objectives

- ❖ To organize workshops for people interested in exploring various forms of Chinese art.
- ❖ To explore various styles of brush painting in order to blend Eastern and Western techniques in a way that enhances creativity and creates a fusion of styles.
- ❖ To increase visibility, awareness, and appreciation of traditional Chinese art in our community.
- ❖ To create a venue for members to display their work.
- ❖ To provide a forum for sharing ideas and techniques among artists.

Activities

- ❖ Exhibitions: The association will organize at least one Chinese art exhibition annually.
- ❖ Workshops: The association will occasionally hold workshops to raise public awareness, generate interest, and allow individuals the opportunity to learn basic techniques of Chinese art.
- ❖ Annual member meeting is scheduled in fall.
